To Whom It May Concern:

Please stop wasting taxpayers money litigating against Microsoft. It is an inefficient use of the taxpayers money.

I buy and use many of the products they sell and do so willingly. Why? They are great products. They are reliable. Most importantly, they allow me to communicate with others who also use Microsoft products.

Enough is enough. Let's move on. There is a time and place for pursuing justice, and that time has passed. The horse was dead a long time ago. Let's not beat it any more.

Sincerely, Peter J. Kain
